NEW CHICAGO-OMARA SERVICE. The Illinois Central Began Running lis Trains Yesterday.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Omaha, Neb., Jan. 29 - Bright and clean as a new dollar, the first Illinois Central pasenger tosis arrived in Omaha this morning, after having left its big load of parsengers, fifty-live lowe editors from Dubique to the Miscourl River, at Council Blains to breakfast. Perhaps a dozen passengers were left to come on through. The Iralii was slated to arrive at $15 a. m., but slice it was a new train, the officials soughl to make it so throughout, and blethed on an elegant big new engine at Fort Dodge, the pick of them all, but the new engine was not onto its job, and balked several times, and refused to steam, so the Iralii got in at 11.65 a. m., instead of on time. But when it alli got here the engine was all right for 'looks' and the whole train was a handsome sight. There were a buffer, Birary and bargage car, a chair car, two day coaches and three sleeping cars, all of the latest model, and handsemely initiated. The day coaches were from the barney & Berry shope, and the Pullmans were the best of their kind.

Coing out, the first train was at 7 a. m. sharp, bound for Minneapshis, and it made its time from the Union Passenger Station by way of the East Omnia Bridge to the Council Bluffs Station in just twenty into the Science Iralii for Chicago at 12.79 m. us, after having left its big load of pasutes. The second train left for Chicago at 12 to p. m.

Windows Were Natled Up.

Fire attacked the two-story frame house at No. 862 Finney avenue early yesterday merning. According to Robert Titinto; who lives next door, the blaze was first discovered by the neighbors, who hunted up a watchman and had an alarm turned in. The dwelling was occupied and owned by Monroe Farsh and family. The firemen report that they gained access to the interior of the burning building with difficulty, as the windows appeared to be securely fastened with large spike mails. Boards had been likewise attached to the inside of some of the windows. In the meantime the fire had gained such headway that the building was badly wrecked.
